[redacted] Jack Leahy, in the office of Congressional Relations, State Department, called and asked if we had seen Senator Fulbright's letter of 25 February to the Secretary of State requesting various studies (including an entire CIA study and any interagency studies) on Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty. Leahy also asked if I could tell him who the points of contact were between our two agencies on matters pertaining to the Radios. After checking with [redacted] C/CA Staff, I advised Leahy that a copy of the letter was LDXd to us last night and Agency recommendations on it were now being developed. I also told him [redacted] of this Agency is in touch with [redacted]
